

Identity fragility: Psychological antecedents and consequences of living in permanent crisis and political instability

EASP Meeting

18 - 20 April 2024 in Milazzo, Sicily

Program

18 APRIL

Welcome dinner (at Eolian Milazzo Hotel)

19 APRIL

9.30-9.45

Introduction: Maria Chayinska, University of Messina

Greetings by the head of Department

9.45-11.15 Ukraine war and refugees from Ukraine

Moderator: Maria Chayinska, University of Messina

1. Katarina Pettersson*, Jari Martikainen, Inari Sakki
*University of Helsinki
Flexible populist ideology during Russia's war in Ukraine: Multimodal constructions of in- and outgroups through Internet
2. Ana-Maria Bliuc*, Daniel S. Courtney, Robb Norrie
*University of Dundee
The role of conflicting war narratives on attitudes toward Ukrainian refugees in Romania and Moldova
3. Tomasz Besta*, Krzysztof Jędrzejewski, Anna Gajda, Ewa Przybylska, Michał Jaśkiewicz
*University of Gdansk
Neighboring the war: Comprehensive links between collective angst, unwillingness to take solidarity actions and conspiratorial thinking
4. Soha Abboud*, Emanuele Politi, Antoine Roblain, Zacharia Badi
*KU Leuven
Why them and not us? Competitive victimhood and relative deprivation jeopardise solidarity between displaced Ukrainian and non-Ukrainian migrants and refugees participating in integration programs

11.15-11.30 coffee break

11.30-13.00 Fragile identities in postconflict societies

Moderator: Patrice Rusconi, University of Messina

1. Deanne van Rensburg*, Anna Kende
*Eotvos Lorand University
Prejudice, multiculturalism, nationalism, collective action and social cohesion in South Africa
2. Luca Andrighetto*, Samer Halabi, Ankica Kosic, Nebojša Petrović, Nedim Prelić, Chiara Pecini, Arie Nadler
*University of Genova
Institutional acknowledgment of the chosen trauma in the background of its denial: A field experiment across conflicting groups
3. Marija Branković*, Teodora Savić, Zdravko Stavrov
*Singidunum University
Histories that tear us apart: the interplay of attachment toward historical narratives and entrenched identities in Balkans' post-conflict societies
4. Sophie Russell*, Erica Hepper, Fabio Fasoli, Aife Hopkins-Doyle, Felien Boone
*University of Surrey
The complex nature of apologies: The role of emotions and perspectives

13.00-14.15 lunch break

14.15-15.45 Minority and majority identities

Moderator: Barbara Lášticová, Slovak Academy of Sciences

1. Michał Bilewicz*, Dominik Puchala
*University of Warsaw
Too obsessed with one's identity: How centrality makes minorities' and majorities' social identity fragile
2. Maor Shani*, Dana Goldberg, Maarten van Zalk
*Osnabrück University
Identity and resilience in the face of antisemitism: Psychosocial outcomes and coping strategies among Jews in Germany
3. Margareta Jelić*, Ena Uzelac, Dinka Čorkalo Biruški, Antonija Vrdoljak, Nikolina Stanković, Rachel Fasel, Fabrizio Butera
*University of Zagreb
Exploring ethnic identity, intergroup threat, and acculturation expectations among Croatian elementary school students
4. Matilde Tumino*, Luciana Carraro, Luigi Castelli
*University of Padua
Intergroup attitudes in the face of crisis: Understanding prejudice during the COVID-19 pandemic

15.45-16.00 coffee break

16.00-17.30 Mobilisation for collective action

Moderator: Anna Kende, ELTE Budapest

1. Ana Urbiola*, Cristina Carmona, Soledad de Lemus
*University of Almeria
Perceived allies' egalitarian and paternalistic motives and socioeconomic vulnerability as antecedents of migrants' participation in different types of collective actions
2. Slieman Halabi*, Anna Baumert, Michał Bilewicz
*University of Wuppertal
From history to action: The Holocaust's role in shaping Israeli resistance to the 2023 judicial reform
3. Pablo de Tezanos-Pinto*, Maria Chayinska, Daniel Miranda
*University of Limerick
Collective action and online engagement during the 2019 protests in Chile
4. Huseyin Cakal*, Claudia Pineda Marin, Manuel Beltran
*Keele University
"The wolf looks after the pack and the pack looks after the wolf": The antecedents and consequences of social leadership as fragile and threatened identity in Colombia

20 APRIL

9.30-11.00 Fragile identities of migrants and refugees

Moderator: Xenia Daniela Poslon, Slovak Academy of Sciences

1. Marco Marinucci*, Christina Bauer, Paolo Riva
*University of Milano-Bicocca
Who should I be? Social exclusion dismantles immigrants' bicultural identity
2. Imge Terzi Oznep*, Rita Guerra, Kinga Bierwiazzonek
*Iscte - Instituto Universitário de Lisboa
Examining the mutuality approach to acculturation and adaptation of refugees: correlational and meta-analytical findings

3. Núbia Vale Rodrigues*, Isabela Saraiva de Queiroz, Aida Milena Cabrera Lozano
*Global-MINDS (Erasmus Mundus Master in the Psychology of Global Mobility, Inclusion and Diversity in Society) / Latino-European Social Psychological Research Network focused on Migration, Displacement and Inclusion (La-EU-MiDI)
Impacts of (de)territorialization on processes of subjectivation: migratory experiences of Venezuelan refugee women in Bogotá
4. Christina Bauer*, Greg Walton
*University of Vienna
How narratives of inherently fragile identities contribute to the disempowerment of disadvantaged individuals

11.00-11.15 coffee break

11.15-12.30 Identity fragility in political processes

Moderator: Anna Kende, ELTE Budapest

1. Carla Grosche*, Tobias Rothmund
*University of Jena
Make us great again: Nostalgic deprivation predicts populist radical right support in Germany
2. Efsio Manunta*, Maja Becker, Vivian L. Vignoles, Paul Bertin, Eleonora Crapolicchio, Camila Contreras, Alin Gavreliuc, Roberto González, Claudia Manzi, Salanova Thomas, Matthew J. Easterbrook
*University of Limerick (Ireland) - CLLE, Université de Toulouse, CNRS (France)
Identity threat to belonging: A partial mediator between populism and its cultural and economic perceptions of threat in five liberal democratic countries
3. Lee Aldar*, Yossi Hasson, Ruthie Pliskin, Eran Halperin
*The Hebrew University of Jerusalem & Leiden University
Highlighting commonalities contributes to the legitimization of delegitimized voices in an unstable democracy: Evidence from an intervention tournament

12.30-14.00 lunch break

14.00-15.30 Challenges of allyship

Moderator: Patrice Rusconi, University of Messina

1. Bao-Thi Van Cong*, Thomas Morton, Hema Preya Selvanathan, Séamus Power
*University of Copenhagen
Intersectional perspectives on allyship: Exploring LGBTQIA+ and ethnic minority perceptions of solidarity in social movements
2. Xenia Daniela Poslon*, Barbara Lášticová
Slovak Academy of Sciences
Navigating normative sources: How adolescents talk about refugees from Ukraine and the Roma
3. Morgana Lizzio-Wilson*, Emma F. Thomas, Michael Wenzel, Emily Haines, Danny Osborne, Linda J. Skitka
*University of Exeter
"Their win is our loss...Or is it?": Framing equality in positive-sum (vs zero-sum) terms can overcome advantaged group's resistance to anticipated social change
4. Craig McGarty*, Amelia Henry, Nida Denson
*Western Sydney University
Advantaged groups align collective action with prejudice

15.30-15.45 Closing remarks: Patrice Rusconi, University of Messina