Art. 2 – FUNDING

The didactic activity performed within this specific protocol do not imply any financial obligation for the Parties. Most of the activities will be carried out remotely (lectures, exams, degree final dissertation). In any case, if physical mobility is envisaged, the Parties agree to find relevant resources to cover the costs of travel and stay for the academics coming from the Hanoi University. UniMe will guarantee logistic support and, according to its own rules and regulations, give any form of assistance.

Art. 3 - RESULTS OF THE AGREEMENT

The intellectual property deriving from the joint activity will belong to both Institutions, unless differently agreed. Both Institutions undertake actions to protect and develop the results according to the rules and regulations of the respective countries.

Art. 4 - MODIFICATION AND DURATION

This specific protocol is in force for the entire period of validity of the MoU signed by the University of Messina and the Hanoi University. Any amendment to the specific protocol shall be made in written. At its expiry date, the specific protocol can be renewed in written.

Art. 5 - SCIENTIFIC ADVISOR

The scientific advisor of the activities carried out under this Protocol are:

- for the University of Messina: Prof. Edoardo Augusto Fugali - Academic Coordinator of the Master Degree Course in Cognitive Science and Theory of Communication
- for the Hanoi University: Prof. Dang Thi Phuong Thao – Director of Italian Language and Culture and International Mobility Center.

Scientific advisors are committed to agree, coordinate, and supervise the implementation of all didactic and research activities carried out within the framework of this Protocol.

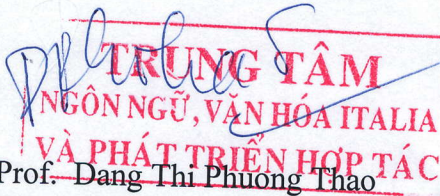

Art. 6 – COPIES
